The Terps have won 5 of 8 ACC titles!

Jen Adams won the 2001 Tewaarton Award as the nation's top women's lacrosse player, as well as the Honda Award for the second straight year. In 2001 she set the NCAA records for career points (445) and assists (174).

Terps AT THE World Cup

THE UNITED STATES NATIONAL TEAM WON THE 2001 WORLD CUP WITH A ROSTER FEATURING EIGHT FORMER TERPS

The 2001 International Federation of Women's Lacrosse Associations' World Cup was played in High Wycombe, England, but that didn't stop the event from having a distinctive Maryland stamp.

At the championships, which were won by the United States, a total of 14 former and current Terrapin lacrosse players represented their respective countries. The U.S. team featured eight Terps among its 16 players including Kelly Amonte-Hiller (1996), Erin Brown (1990), Quinn Carney (2001), Randall Flynn (1997), Christie Jenkins (2000), Kristin Sommar (2000), Michele Uhlfelder (1991) and Jess Wilk (1990). In addition, five members of the Australian national team can claim they played at Maryland. Among them were former players Jen Adams (2001), Trish Adams, Sarah Forbes (1997), Courtney Hobbs (2002) and Sascha Newmarch (1998). Finally, Laura Warren was a starting attacker for the Welsh team.

As mentioned previously, the title was taken home by the Americans, but it took a come-from-behind effort to beat the Aussies, 14-8, in the championship game. The 2-0 deficit that the U.S.A. dug itself out of was the only time that it trailed in the tourney.

For the upcoming World Cup in Annapolis, Maryland has eight players on the 24-member U.S. team, including current Terp Acacia Walker. The Terps will also be represented on the Australian squad with six former players, and current Terp Laura Warren will again represent Wales.

THE TERPS' COACHING INFLUENCE

Nearly 20 former Terps are now college coaches:

The University of Maryland has a long-reaching impact on the sport of women's lacrosse, primarily because of the significant number of players the program has sent into the coaching ranks. Nearly former 20 Terrapins are on the sidelines as college coaches, and Denise Wescott (Maryland, '80) is the head coach of the German national team. From the West Coast, where Michele Uhlfelder (Maryland, '91) leads Stanford, to the Midwest where Kelly Amonte-Hiller (Maryland, '96) heads Northwestern, to the East Coast where Jennifer Ulehla (Maryland, '91) was recently appointed as head coach at Temple, the Terps continue to make their mark in the sport.

SEASON OUTLOOK

Terps set to challenge for another NCAA title.

The Maryland women's lacrosse team is in an unfamiliar role heading into 2005: underdog. For those who have counted the Terps out or think that their championship run is a thing of the past, this year's squad may end up surprising the country as Maryland has all of the ingredients for a championship-caliber team.

"We're obviously not going to sneak up on anybody, but we have to play with an attitude – a chip on our shoulder," head coach Cindy Timchal says.

Despite losing three-time All-American Kelly Coppedge, the Terps still return explosive offensive players as well as an experienced and talented defense that was one of the nation's best last season.

"We have a strong core of players that I think stacks up well with the rest of the country," Timchal says. "The thing that makes this team special is the way they enjoy the game and play as a unit. They love to play the game with each other, and that translates to a cohesive team on the field."

The Terps will have experience all over the field. Maryland still returns over 70 percent of its offense despite losing Coppedge's 98 points, and eight players that have experience in the starting lineup return in 2005. The offense will be paced by seniors Jessica Dorney and Annie Collins as well as junior Delia Cox, who is on pace to become one of Maryland's top goal scorers. Dynamic midfielder Acacia Walker, who has started every game of her career, will also chip in on offense but will be counted on for defense and draw controls. The defense loses three starters, but returns All-American Greta Sommers and Kirah Miles, who posted the ACC's best goals-against average in her first season as a starter in 2004. In addition to that experience, Maryland also welcomes the nation's fourth-best recruiting class.

"We've got experienced players that will help us in the tough situations," Timchal says. "These players know what it takes to win, and the younger players feed off of that attitude."

Timchal will again test her team with one of the toughest schedules in the country, and by the end of the season, the Terps hope to get back to the role they are used to: champion.

Jessica Dorney

ATTACK

Always high-powered, the Maryland offense has the potential to be overwhelmingly dominant. The Terp offense, based on precision and speed, has all of the components to take over the game.

"I think our offense can be dynamic," Timchal says. "We have individuals that can take over a game, but we could have different players lead us in scoring in any given game. Defenses will have to account for every player on the attack."

Brooke Richards

Senior Jessica Dorney will look to keep the momentum from a breakout junior season that saw her score 27 goals and 11 assists. Dorney's ability to work in traffic and score makes her dangerous around the cage. Junior Brooke Richards closed the season in strong fashion and provides the Terps with good vision working behind the cage. Sophomore Krista Pellizzi, a regular off the bench in her first season with the Terps, is a crafty player who will vie for major minutes. Sophomore Mollie Reese, last season's ACC Freshman of the Year, will be in the mix at attack after recovering from a wrist injury suffered in the winter. Senior Meredith O'Brien and sophomore Jen Greenberg are strong scorers who will give Maryland options off the bench.

"We have good depth at this position that will allow us to play our high-pace style," Timchal says. "I expect this group to score plenty of goals for us this season."

MIDFIELD

In the midfield, the Terps feature players with varying strengths that help to make this group one of the most dynamic in the nation, starting with Acacia Walker. Walker has excellent vision and can distribute the ball on the offensive side, but also excels in the defensive zone as well. Walker, who has 73 career goals and 70 career assists, will take a majority of the draws for the Terps as well.

Annie Collins

"Acacia is definitely a go-to player for this team," Timchal says. "She is just such a good all-around player that other teams need to account for her wherever she is on the field, whether she has the ball or is on defense. She loves the game and is determined to do whatever she needs to make us successful."

Maryland got a boost to its 2005 roster when Annie Collins and Laura Warren decided to return to the team to complete their eligibility. Collins had a career year in 2004 scoring 49 points on 23 goals and a career-high 26 assists. Warren is a more defensive-minded middie who brings intense effort throughout the entire game. The Terps also return preseason All-America selection Delia Cox, the speedy midfielder who scored 47 goals in her sophomore season with the Terps. Cox's speed not only makes her a dangerous scorer but also serves her well in the defensive zone.

The remaining pieces of the midfield will have less experience but plenty of talent. Katie Doolittle will get a chance to build off her freshman season that saw her play in all 20 games and score eight goals and three assists. Kelly Kasper, widely regarded as the nation's top incoming freshman, will be tested immediately. Another freshman, Lauren Cohen, has also impressed the coaches with her finishing ability and will get plenty of minutes in the midfield for the Terrapins. Australian native Casey Magor, her country's leading scorer at the U-19 World Cup, will also be in the mix for serious playing time.

"I think the overall skill level of our midfield is outstanding," Timchal says. "All of the players are very good on both ends of the field. I am excited to see how they play together when the season starts because I think that this unit can be very dominant."

DEFENSE

Despite the loss of a pair of starters, Maryland still returns All-American Greta Sommers and goalie Kirah Miles from a unit that was fifth in the NCAA in goals-against average in 2004.

"Last season, we had experienced players in front of an inexperienced goalie, and this year it's a bit of the opposite," Timchal says. "Greta is a great asset because she works so hard and she does a great job taking away what opposing offenses want to do. Kirah had a tremendous year last year, and she played best when we needed it most. I am confident she's going to have another great season."

Greta Sommers

Megan Sommar

Sommers, a starter in every game of her career, is an excellent one-on-one defender who will draw the assignment of marking the opposing team's best offensive weapon. Her awareness and footwork make it difficult for players to get to the cage. Megan Sommar, one of Maryland's top players off the bench a season ago, is also an excellent defender in isolation situations and will make her mark in the starting lineup as a senior. Sophomore Becky Clipp is explosive out of the defensive end and has demonstrated to the coaches that she is ready for significant playing time.

Megan Cassara, a freshman lefty, and sophomore Meghan Higgins will also compete for time on the defense. Higgins also excels at taking draws for the Terps and could be used situationally for Maryland.

"Our group of defenders are very intense and take a lot of pride in what they do," Timchal says. "We are going to need the younger players play well, but with Greta and [Megan] Sommar's leadership, I think they will."

Miles started every game for the Terps as a junior and was the ACC leader in goals-against average. Backing her up will be freshman Allie Buote, Katie Capelle and Beth Capelle. Katie Capelle saw spot duty for the Terps in 2004.

SCHEDULE

In 2004, Maryland's strength of schedule was rated as the eighth-best in the country as the Terps faced 14 ranked teams and sevem squads that advanced to the NCAA Tournament. In 2005, the Terrapins will again face the kind of competition that will prepare them for the NCAA Tournament in Annapolis, Md., in May.

Maryland will have just seven games at home this season, beginning with a showdown against Duke in the season-opener on February 26. The Terps will conclude a three-game road trip at defending national champion Virginia on March 8 before a pair of home contests against Brown and Denver.

Kirah Miles

The Terrapins will then be away from College Park during a six-game stretch that will last nearly a month. However, the Terps will play in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge again this year, which will be played at Navy-Marine Corps Stadium in nearby Annapolis.

This season, M & T Bank Stadium in Baltimore will be the site for the ACC Tournament. The ACC, which welcomes Virginia Tech this season, is again one of the nation's most competitive conferences. The tournament will coincide with the men's championship, making it an exciting weekend for local lacrosse enthusiasts.

Following the ACC Tournament, the Terps play host to two of the nation's premiere teams in Princeton and Loyola. The preseason top-10 teams will help prepare the Terps for the NCAA Tournament, which will run from May 12-22.

"The goal of the schedule, as always, is to get us ready for games when your season is actually on the line – the NCAA Tournament," Timchal says. "We want to win as many games as we can, but the bottom line is that we need to be able to win them when they are most important."

HEAD COACH CINDY TIMCHAL

15th season at Maryland • West Chester '76

If excellence is a measure of accomplishment, her eight titles at Maryland speak volumes.

If excellence is a measure of character, the lives she touches and the student-athletes she molds represent an immeasurable impact on the people around her.

If excellence is a way to describe those who are admired by their athletes, revered by their peers, and respected by their community, then Maryland head women's lacrosse coach Cindy Timchal celebrates nothing less than 14 years of excellence at the University of Maryland.

When Timchal arrived in College Park, the Maryland women's lacrosse program stood at a 201-69-3 (a .736 winning percentage) all-time. Under Timchal's guidance, the Terps have taken what was already a strong program and elevated it to one that has since notched an astounding record of 236-31 (.883), turning Maryland into the winningest Division I women's lacrosse team ever. The Terps are now 437-100-3 (.812) in 31 years of lacrosse.

In 2004, Timchal became the first head coach in the sport's history to reach the 300-win mark. Heading into the 2005 season, no other coach in the sport has more wins than the Maryland mentor.

Beyond the numbers, though, Timchal has done her part to revolutionize the sport of women's lacrosse. In recent years, Timchal has brought some of the most influential names in lacrosse through College Park, including former assistant Gary Gait, and more recently former Terp stars Cathy Nelson and Jen Adams. In addition, Maryland players are a fixture on national teams and in the collegiate coaching ranks, demonstrating the breadth of Timchal's influence. Ten years ago, she added another dimension to the learning process at Maryland as she brought aboard the wisdom of California-based spiritual advisor and author Dr. Jerry Lynch to enrich the minds of her student-athletes. That decision has complemented the already high level of physical training it takes to excel at the Division I level and is a trend that has caught on throughout the world of sports.

From Kelly Amonte to Cathy Nelson, Alex Kahoe to Alexis Venechanos, Jen Adams to Kelly Coppedge, the one constant in all of the great Maryland players has been Cindy Timchal.

In only three seasons since her arrival in College Park has Timchal lost more than three games in any one season, highlighted by the spectacular undefeated seasons of 1996 (19-0), 1999 (21-0) and 2001 (23-0). She has taken her Terrapin teams to the NCAA finals in 11 of the past 15 years, at one point winning an unprecedented seven-straight national titles.

In winning their seventh-straight national title under Timchal's watch, the Terps posted what currently stands as the third-longest championship streak in women's NCAA history. In addition, it puts Timchal in the company of coaching legends like UCLA's John Wooden who won seven straight titles with the UCLA men's basketball program from 1967-73.

Timchal's coaching career got its start at Northwestern in 1982. During her nine-year tenure with the Wildcats, she compiled a 76-40 record (.655) and took her team to five NCAA appearances. While at Northwestern, Timchal made it as far as the quarterfinals, earning appearances in the NCAA Tournament in 1984, '86, '87, and '88. In 1991, she came to the College Park to continue the already long-standing tradition of Terrapin lacrosse.

Prior to '91, the Terrapins' last title had come in 1986 under head coach Sue Tyler, but the Maryland dynasty began to re-emerge almost immediately under Timchal's guidance. Timchal's first year saw a 14-3 record and a trip to the NCAA finals. By 1992, the lacrosse world knew something big was about to happen at Maryland. Despite being at a place with a rich history in both men's and women's lacrosse, few could have predicted that a dynasty so powerful was on the horizon. With a 14-1 record, the Terrapins took the 1992 national title — just the third in Maryland school history.

The 1993 season would bring a heartbreaking 7-6 loss to the Princeton Tigers in the NCAA semifinals. The following year led to further frustration with the Tigers, as a 10-7 decision left the Terrapins just one win away from hoisting the trophy again. In 1995, however, Timchal and the Terps would turn the tables on the competition.

After the three-goal loss to Princeton in 1994, the Terps would go on to win 50 straight games. Timchal led the 1995 squad to a 17-0 run ending in a 13-5 defeat of Princeton for the NCAA title. Maryland would go undefeated again in 1996, finishing with a 19-0 record and a 10-5 decision over ACC rival Virginia to take home the hardware.

The 1997 season would begin with Timchal's squad wearing the label of back-to-back NCAA champions, and the Terps were able to again dominate the competition. Maryland posted a 21-1 record and was just one goal short of putting together its third consecutive undefeated season.

TIMCHAL NOTES:

The dynasty continued throughout the 1998 season despite an 0-2 start following losses to Duke and North Carolina. That season finished the same way as the previous three, however, with Timchal's Terrapins being crowned the NCAA champions once again, this time behind an 11-5 win over Virginia.

In 1999, the Terrapins were no less than the personification of a finely-tuned program from top to bottom. Timchal led Maryland to a 21-0 season, the team's fifth-straight title. The 2000 season saw Maryland stumble momentarily out of the gate with an overtime loss at North Carolina, but the "machine" could not be stopped as the Terps went on to win their final 20 en route to their sixth title in a row.

The 2001 season may have been Timchal's finest of all her seasons as a head coach. The Terrapins played one of — if not the – toughest schedule in women's lacrosse and were every team's target as the one to beat. Despite the attention, the Terps again ran through the schedule without a blemish and ultimately beat Georgetown in a gut-wrenching title game to finish 23-0. The 23 wins are most ever by a team in a single season.

Now looking to start a new streak of championships, Timchal will enter 2005 with some of the most impressive coaching numbers already under her belt. Her .815 career winning percentage places her fifth on the list of all-time women's lacrosse coaches.

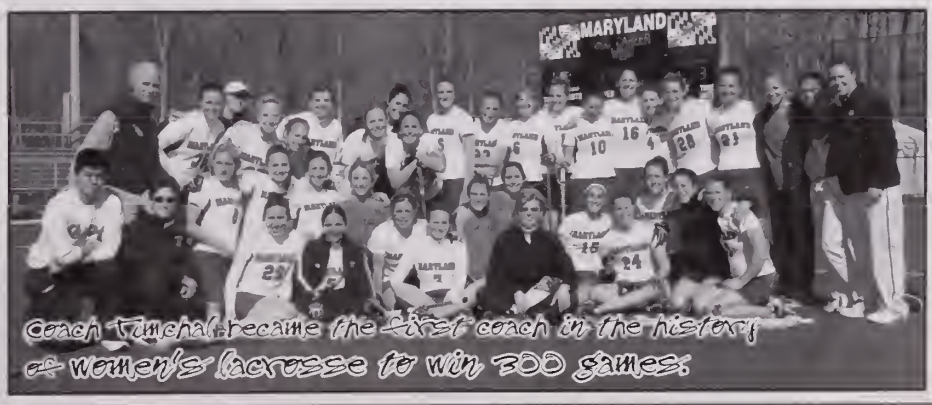
Individually, her athletes have earned countless accolades and awards. Maryland has had 20 first team All-Americans in the last seven years, and 13 players have earned national offensive, defensive or goalkeeper of the year awards. Jen Adams became the first-ever winner of the Tewaaraton Trophy, which recognizes the top collegiate men's and women's player in the country, and Kelly Coppedge was a finalist in each of the past two seasons. In 1996, Kelly Amonte became the Terps' first four-time All-American, including first-team honors in 1995 and 1996.

A total of 39 different Terrapins have earned All-America recognition 70 times under Timchal including Kelly Amonte's four, (1993-96), and three each for Betsy Elder (1992-94), Sarah Forbes (1995-97), Laura Harmon (1993-95), Sascha Newmarch (1996-98), Jen Adams (1999-2001) and Kelly Coppedge (2002-04). In 2004, Coppedge earned first team honors, Delia Cox was named to the second team and Greta Sommers was named third team All-America. Adams' third-consecutive selection as Player of the Year in 2000 marked the 10th time one of Timchal's players have earned National Player of the Year honors, including Amonte, who was named the 1996 NCAA Division I Most Valuable Player. Nationally, 15 of Timchal's players have played on the U.S. Developmental team and eight were members of the most recent championship World Cup team, a total that made up half of the 2001 team's roster.

Timchal not only produces champions on the field, but also in the classroom. Two seasons ago, Julie Shank was named Scholar Athlete of the Year. Jen Adams was named GTE/CoSida Academic All-American of the Year (2000). In 1998, Sascha Newmarch earned GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-American. Betsy Elder was a two-time Academic All-American in 1993-94, while Theresa Ingram and Jamie Brodsky earned honors in 1994 and 1996, respectively.

As impressive as the honors under Timchal are, the most telling of all her accomplishments as a coach may be what has become of some of her former players. Timchal has created a legacy of creating coaches indirectly through her coaching. Among the former players who have gone on to coach at the collegiate level are, Kelly Amonte-Hiller (1996 grad; current head coach at Northwestern), Missy Holmes (1997 grad; current Towson head coach), Kerstin Kimel (1993 grad; current head coach at Duke), Courtney Martinez-Conner (2001 grad; current Mount Saint Mary's head coach), Karen McCrate (1996 grad; coach of 2001 NCAA D-II Champion C.W. Post), Cathy Nelson (1998 grad; current Denver head coach), Tami Riley (1996 grad; Virginia Tech head coach), Michelle Uhlfelder (1991 grad; current Stanford head coach), Jennifer Uhlela (1991 grad; current Temple coach). Timchal also mentored Dartmouth head coach Amy Patton at Unionville (Pa.) High School and has several former players serving as assistants at other schools including Cara Gorman (Vermont), Meg McNamara (Stony Brook), Alex Kahoe (Pennsylvania) and Alexis Venechanos (Northwestern).

Timchal attended West Chester (Pa.) University where she lettered in lacrosse, tennis and track & field. Following her graduation, she became an assistant coach at Unionville (Pa.) High School where she coached field hockey, lacrosse and basketball. In February 2004, she was inducted into the school's hall of fame. In 1979, she joined the collegiate ranks, becoming an assistant lacrosse and field hockey coach at the University of Pennsylvania.



Coach Timchal became the first coach in the history of women's lacrosse to win 300 games.

ASSISTANT COACH LAURI KENIS

Second season at Maryland • Virginia '03

Former Virginia standout Lauri Kenis begins her second season on the other side of one of the sport's most intense rivalries as an assistant coach for Maryland. Kenis joined the staff after long-time assistant Cathy Nelson was named the head coach at Denver in 2003.

In Kenis' first year working with the defense, she helped lead a unit that was among the best in the nation and the ACC. The Terps allowed just 7.90 goals per game, best in the conference and fifth in the country. Defender Greta Sommers earned All-ACC and All-America honors.

Kenis, a two-time consensus first team All-American, was a four-year letter-winner on the Virginia lacrosse team and helped the Cavaliers advance twice to the NCAA finals. She was a two-time all-conference selection in her career as she helped Virginia advance to two ACC finals her tenure in Charlottesville. Kenis also earned NCAA and ACC All-Tournament honors.

A member of the USA Elite team, Kenis ranks second all-time at Virginia in caused turnovers and started every game of her final two seasons at UVa. An honorable mention national player of the week (by insidelacrosse.com), Kenis is a two-time member of the Virginia All-State team and ranked second on Virginia's team in ground balls and caused turnovers in both her junior and senior seasons.

A native of Havertown, Pa., Kenis has coached at numerous lacrosse camps around the nation and is a frequent clinician at various events. She completed her undergraduate degree in psychology and finished her master's degree in education in 2003.

ASSISTANT COACH ALLISON VALENTINO

First season at Maryland • Loyola '98

Allison Valentino begins her first season in College Park after having spent the last six seasons as an assistant coach at Duke. In her last season with the Blue Devils, she served as the associate head coach. She will work with the offense as well as being heavily involved in all aspects of recruiting.

"I am thrilled to be here and am looking forward to getting started," Valentino said when she was hired in August. "I feel honored to be part of a program with a great lacrosse tradition and am very excited to start working with these high-caliber student-athletes."

At Duke, Valentino helped build the Blue Devil program into one of the elite in the country. The Blue Devils advanced to the NCAA Tournament in each of her six seasons, including three straight quarterfinal appearances and a trip to the National Semifinals in 1999. Twelve Duke players were named IWLCA All-Americans during her tenure, as well as 19 All-ACC selections.

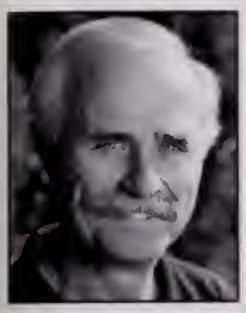
In addition to being involved with all aspects of the program, Valentino was also Duke's primary recruiting coordinator. She helped land some of the top classes in the nation, including the 2003 class which included four members off the U.S. Under-19 team and was ranked second in the nation by Inside Lacrosse.

As a player, Valentino was a two-time All-CAA selection and earned IWLCA All-America accolades in 1996 and 1997. She led the team to three NCAA Tournament Final Fours and a spot in the 1997 national championship match. Valentino played on the Loyola team that earned the No. 1 ranking and won a school-record 16 matches in 1994. She finished her career with 71 goals and 49 assists for 120 points.

A native of Fulton, Md., Valentino earned her Master's in Clinical Psychology at Loyola in 1998.

SPIRITUAL ADVISOR DR. JERRY LYNCH

10th season at Maryland • St. Francis



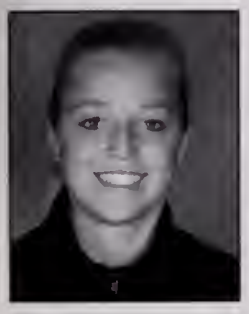
Dr. Jerry Lynch is entering his 10th season as a spiritual advisor for the Maryland women's lacrosse team. He has over 20 years of experience who has worked with clients in the PGA, NFL and NBA, as well as numerous collegiate teams, many of which have either advance to the NCAA Final Four or have won NCAA titles.

Lynch runs the TaoSportsCenter for Athletic Development which is based in Santa Cruz, Calif. He has published seven books and has had 75 articles published. One of his more recent books, Creative Coaching, deals with teaching athletes the skills, strategies, and discipline to help them succeed; while also helping to guide, encourage, respect, and inspire athletes.

After earning his bachelor's degree in English from St. Francis College, Lynch earned his master's degree in psychology from Penn State and his Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Pennsylvania. In addition, he earned a Ph.D. in comparative religions from the American College of Theology and a master's degree in family and child counseling from California.

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT SONIA JUDD

First season at Maryland • Maryland '03



Former Maryland Terrapin standout Sonia Judd will join the coaching staff as a volunteer assistant for the Terps in 2005. Judd was with the program last season as an undergraduate assistant.

She will work primarily with the attack as well as assist the staff with administrative duties.

Judd, who is a member of the Australian national team, was an All-American for the Terps as a senior in 2003. That season, she was second on the team in goals (49), assists (25) and points (74). She was also a first team All-ACC selection and earned All-ACC Tournament honors in helping lead the Terps to their fifth ACC title.

For her career, she scored 111 goals and had 55 assists for 166 points and was a member of two national championship teams.

"We are very excited to have Sonia involved in the program," head coach Cindy Timchal said of having Judd as a member of the staff. "She has a tremendous offensive mind and our team will benefit greatly from her knowledge. Sonia knows first-hand what we want to accomplish and how we want to accomplish it, and she does a good job of communicating with all of our athletes. We're happy to be able to have such a wonderful resource."

THE 2005 TERPS

2004 REVIEW NOTEBOOK

Timchal gets win No. 300 during successful season.

- The Terrapins finished the season 15-5 and advanced to the NCAA Quarterfinals. It was Maryland's 15th straight appearance in the NCAA Tournament, and the 15th straight time the Terps have advanced to the quarterfinals. Georgetown eliminated Maryland, 14-10, at Ludwig Field in the NCAA Tournament.

- Head coach Cindy Timchal became the first coach in women's lacrosse history to reach 300 career wins. Timchal picked up her 300th win with a 25-3 win over Quinnipiac on March 11, 2004.

- After a sluggish 2-2 start, Maryland went over a month without a loss rattling off a season-long 10 straight victories from March 11-April 17.

- Seventy-five percent (15 of 20) were ranked among the nation's top 20 when the Terps played them. Maryland posted a 10-5 mark in those games, including a 13-8 win over then-No. 2 Georgetown at home. That game was also televised by CSTV.

- Maryland was 15-1 when scoring 10 goals in a game. In four of the Terps' five losses, the team failed to crack double-digits.

- The Terps excelled at converting free-position opportunities, scoring 45 on 89 opportunities. Opponents did not have as easy of a time, converting on just 25 in 87 chances.

- Several Terps earned national recognition for their 2004 efforts. Kelly Coppedge earned first team All-America honors from IWLCA/US Lacrosse, Inside Lacrosse and womenslacrosse.com. She was also named Midfielder of the Year by womenslacrosse.com. Delia Cox was named first team All-America by Inside Lacrosse and womenslacrosse.com, and to the second team by IWLCA/US Lacrosse. Greta Sommers was a third team All-America selection by IWLCA/US Lacrosse, and Mollie Reese was named to the All-Freshman team by womenslacrosse.com.

- Despite finishing 1-3 in the ACC, Maryland still placed five players on the all-conference team – the most of any in the league. Kelly Coppedge was named to the All-ACC team for the third time in her career, while senior Annie Collins, juniors Acacia Walker and Greta Sommers, and sophomore Delia Cox all earned their first selections to the team. Freshman Mollie Reese was named the ACC's Freshman of the Year. Reese is just the second Terp to earn that honor, joining Alex Kahoe in 1997.

- Kelly Coppedge led the team with 72 goals, the fourth-highest single-season total in Maryland history. Coppedge and Annie Collins each paced the team with 26 assists, and Coppedge led the team in total points with 98 – the sixth most in a season for a Terrapin.

- Maryland had an ACC Player of the Week in four of the nine weeks the conference handed out the award. Kelly Coppedge was a three-time honoree, while Delia Cox earned the accolade once.

- Kirah Miles and Delia Cox were named to the ACC All-Tournament team. Maryland lost in the ACC Semifinals to eventual champ Virginia, 9-7.

- Kelly Coppedge finished her career with exactly 300 points, ranking third on Maryland's all-time list and 15th in NCAA history in that category. Coppedge scored 219 goals (2nd all-time at Maryland/16th all-time in NCAA history) and 81 assists (seventh all-time at Maryland).

- For the second straight year, Kelly Coppedge was a finalist for the Tewaaraton Award.

Kelly Coppedge was a finalist for the Tewaaraton Award.

- In her first season as a starter, Kirah Miles proved to be worth the wait. Miles led the ACC in goals-against average (8.01) and was sixth in the nation in that category as well. Miles also played well against the best – she had a pair of 17-save games against eventual national champion Virginia, made 13 saves against Georgetown and 14 against Loyola, and held Princeton to what was then its lowest output of the season (eight goals).

- Delia Cox had a pair of memorable six-goal games in 2004. Against Syracuse, she broke an 11-11 tie late in the second half with three unanswered goals to seal the game for the Terps. Against Princeton, Cox scored six of Maryland's seven goals in a 8-7 overtime thriller in Princeton, N.J.

- Terp seniors Kelly Coppedge (Annapolis, Md.), Molly Lambert (Brightwaters, N.Y.), Meg Mallon (Towson, Md.), Jenny Marmion (East Aurora, N.Y.), Tess McLeod (Moanna, South Australia) and Laura Warren (Cilgerran, Wales) finished their careers against Georgetown in the NCAA Tournament.

2004 GAME RECAPS

RICHMOND 6
#2 MARYLAND 16

Feb. 21, 2004

Lacrosse Complex, College Park, Md.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Kelly Coppedge and Jessica Dorney each scored a hat trick to lead No. 2 Maryland to a season-opening 16-6 win over Richmond at the Lacrosse & Field Hockey Complex. Maryland improved to 24-7 in season openers with the win.

The Spiders (0-1) tried to slow the pace down by holding possession, but Maryland (1-0) scored the game's first three goals and seven of the first eight to force the action. Freshman Mollie Reese opened the game's scoring at 23:17 (the first score of her career) on an assist from Annie Collins. Laura Warren and Dorney followed with a pair of unassisted goals.

After a Richmond goal by Allison Nuzzi to cut the lead to 3-1, the Terps rattled off four more scores to take a six-goal margin. Coppedge scored two goals to help key the run.

Nuzzi scored cut the lead to 7-3 with a goal to end the first half and to begin the second, but that was as close as they would get after Dorney scored two more and Warren added another to take control of the game. The Terps were able to control possession the rest of the way scoring six of the game's last eight goals. Maryland out-shot Richmond 17-8 in the second half and had a 33-15 advantage in shots for the entire game.

Coppedge and Dorney finished the game with four points each (three goals and one assist), and Coppedge scooped a game-high six ground balls. Collins chipped in two goals and one assist to help pace the Maryland offense. Junior Kirah Miles, making her first start in the cage for Maryland, made five saves for the Terps.

"It was great to have us open the season and play as a team," head coach Cindy Timchal said. "Richmond tried to set the tempo and take time off the clock, but I was proud of the fact that we were poised defensively. Offensively, we are still a young team and we come away with some confidence."

Richmond was paced by Nuzzi's game-high four goals. Polly Purcell added a goal and two assists for the Spiders.

#2 MARYLAND 7
#4 DUKE 9

Feb. 29, 2004

Koskinen Stadium, Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. -- Second-ranked Maryland scored four of the game's last five goals but it wasn't enough to erase a 5-1 half time deficit as the Terps fell to No. 4 Duke, 9-7, Sunday afternoon at Koskinen Stadium.

The Blue Devils (3-0, 1-0) scored the game's first two goals before Kelly Coppedge got the Terrapins (1-1, 0-1) on track. Coppedge finished a feed from Annie Collins at the top of the crease on a restart at the 23:41 mark in the first half.

The rest of the first session was all Duke, as the Blue Devils tallied three more unanswered goals to take a 5-1 lead into the half. Kirah Miles helped keep the Terps in the game making nine first-half saves. Duke outshot Maryland 18-10 in the first half and held a 5-2 advantage in draw controls in controlling the action.

The Terps and Blue Devils traded goals for the first 15 minutes of the second half before Jessica Dorney helped ignite a Maryland rally in the last 15 minutes. Dorney scored three goals in just under 10 minutes to cut the deficit to 9-6. Between Dorney's goals was an own goal by Maryland for Duke when a Terp defender tried to get the ball to Miles and wound up in the net.

Laura Warren tacked on another goal for the Terps with 2:06 left in the game to make it 9-7, but a Terp turnover after controlling the draw ended Maryland's comeback.

In the second half, Maryland outscored 6-4 and outshot Duke in the second half 16-8. Excellent goaltending by Duke's Megan Huether helped keep the Terrapins off the board. Huether finished the game with 15 saves, including four on free position shots. Huehter's performance overshadowed Miles' performance in the cage. Miles stopped a career-high 12 shots in the game.

#7 SYRACUSE 11

March 3, 2004

Carrier Dome, Syracuse, N.Y.

SYRACUSE, N.Y. --The University of Maryland women's lacrosse team raced out to a 10-3 half time lead and withstood a furious Syracuse rally in the second half to come away with a 14-11 win Wednesday night at the Carrier Dome.

Delia Cox scored a career-high six goals, including the team's last three scores, to help lead Terrapins (2-1) to victory.

The Terps learned from their slow start at Duke on Sunday as they opened the game in strong fashion. Cox got Maryland on the board first converting on a free-position shot. After a Syracuse score, the Terps went on a 10-2 run. Kelly Coppedge helped key the spurt with four assists and a goal, while Katie Doolittle, a native of nearby Manlius, N.Y., found the back of the net twice during the run in her homecoming.Maryland controlled the pace and the tempo in the first half by holding a 10-4 advantage in draw controls.

The Orangewomen (1-1), fresh off a comeback victory over Virginia on Saturday, wouldn't let the Terps run away with the game. Jessica Dorney answered Syracuse's Meghan O'Connell's goal to start the second half, but the Orangewomen went on to score the game's next six goals to cut the Maryland lead to 11-10.

With Syracuse charging hard and having all of the momentum, Cox took things over for Maryland. Utilizing one-on-one matchups, Cox was able to use her speed to get past her defender and get to the cage to finish. After halting the Syracuse run and Maryland's 13-minute scoring drought with a goal and push the lead back to 12-10, she again halted Orangewomen momentum -- this time answering Syracuse Danielle Lillis' score with 3:30 left in the game. Cox put the game away just over a minute later starting behind the cage, making one quick move and then darting to the front of the net for the score.

Cox's six goals led all scorers. Coppedge tied her career-high for assists in a game with four and finished the game with five points. Dorney added a three-goal, one-assist performance for the Terps.

2005 MARYLAND WOMEN'S LACROSSE

#9 VIRGINIA 10
#3 MARYLAND 8

March 9, 2004
Lacrosse Complex, College Park, Md.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Junior Kirah Miles stopped 17 shots in goal for Maryland, but it wasn't enough as Virginia topped the Terps 10-8 Tuesday night in women's lacrosse action.

"I thought our team played hard but we weren't good enough tonight," Maryland head coach Cindy Timchal said. "I thought Virginia played really well and that they dominated in a couple of areas that we struggled in. We weren't sharp tonight and we need to be to beat a team like Virginia."

Maryland jumped out to an early 2-0 lead on goals from Mollie Reese and Delia Cox. Kelly Coppedge added an assist on Reese's goal to help move the Terps out to the early advantage. Virginia countered in the 20th minute on a goal from Amy Appelt and evened the score just over a minute later on a score from Tyler Leachman. Coppedge put the Terps back out in front converting on a free position shot with eight minutes left in the first half, but Appelt – curling from the back of the net to the top of the crease – countered for the Cavs on an unassisted goal at 4:55 to tie the game at 3-3 going into the half.

Miles keyed the defense for the Terps stopping all three of Virginia's free position shots in the first half. Virginia controlled the pace of the play for most of the half, holding a 5-2 advantage on draw controls.

Caitlin Banks opened the second half with a goal and Ashleigh Haas converted on a free position shot to take a 5-3 lead. Just under a minute later, Krista Pellizzi raced in from the top of the fan and beat her defenders to score for Maryland. After another Appelt goal, the Terps knotted the game at 6-6 on scores from Coppedge and Cox with just 9:51 remaining. However, the Cavs would tally the game's next four goals in eight minutes, including one from Appelt and two from Haas. The Terps would score a pair of late goals from Cox and Laura Warren, but the rally would fall short.

The Terps were paced on offense by Cox's three goals and two assists and two goals from Coppedge. Pellizzi added a goal and assist for Maryland.

QUINNIPIAC 3
#3 MARYLAND 25

March 11, 2004
Lacrosse Complex, College Park, Md.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Cindy Timchal, the winningest coach in women's lacrosse history, won her 300th career game as Maryland defeated Quinnipiac, 25-3, Thursday afternoon at the Lacrosse Complex.

"It's just a tribute to everyone that has been involved with the program," Timchal said of her 300th win. "We've had tremendous support from the University of Maryland and great players. It's the players that score the goals and get the victories for a coach — I've never scored a goal. It's really something all of the Terrapin players we've had here can share and take pride in."

Senior Kelly Coppedge led the offensive onslaught with six goals and two assists for a career-high eight points. The Terps also got hat tricks from Jessica Dorney, Delia Cox and Jen Greenberg. Annie Collins also chipped in a game-high three assists for Maryland.

Maryland took an early 2-0 lead before Coppedge rattled off three straight goals. The Terps scored their first five goals in the first 12 minutes of action, and had a 10-0 lead at the 9:59 mark on a Krista Pellizzi's goal. Jaimee Motley and Meredith O'Brien tallied their first goals of the season (and of their careers) before another Coppedge goal as time expired in the first half and the Terrapin lead swelled to 14-0.

The second half was more of the same as Coppedge, Acacia Walker and Dorney scored in the first 10 minutes. After a Bobcat score by Jennifer Larson to make the score 17-1, Maryland scored three more times – one by Tess McLeod and two by Katie Doolittle. Quinnipiac countered with a pair of goals from Annie Paquette and Amy Willis, but Maryland went on to score the game's final five scores. Krysta Juris scored the first goal of her career, followed by three straight by Greenberg, and one by Emily Jaissle – the first in her career.

Kirah Miles did not allow a goal in 35 minutes of work before giving way to Kate Capelle, who stopped two shots and gave up three goals.

BROWN 6

March 12, 2004
Stevenson Field, Providence, R.I.

PROVIDENCE, R.I. -- University of Maryland women's defeated got a career-high nine points from Kelly Coppedge on seven goals and two assists and cruised to a 21-6 victory over Brown Friday night in Providence, R.I.

A day after playing in 52-degree sunny weather, the Terps played in cold and windy conditions that reached into the teens with the wind chill. The result was the same, though, as the Terps posted another runaway victory.

Maryland got off to another quick start, scoring the game's first five goals, highlighted by a Coppedge goal in which she took a feed from behind the net from Acacia Walker, turned her back to the cage, and fired a shot over her shoulder that found the back of the net. The Terps' fifth goal came nine seconds after their fourth when Walker won the draw and found Coppedge who raced down the field and scored.

Brown registered its first score of the game midway through the first half, but the Terps responded with three straight goals from Katie Doolittle, Krista Pellizzi and Walker. Brown's Laurel Pierpont goal made the score 8-2, but the Coppedge scored three straight of her own to push the lead to 11-2. A late score by the Bears' Sarah Passano made the score 11-3 at the half.

After a Delia Cox goal to open the second half, Brown made a run at the Terps scoring three unanswered goals and cut the lead in half, 12-6. But the Terps would hold the Bears scoreless for the game's last 24 minutes and add nine more goals, including two for Coppedge, Krista Pellizi and Jessica Dorney. Cox, Emily Jaissle and Brooke Richards also scored a goal for Maryland in its game-ending 9-0 run.

Coppedge, who set career-highs in goals and points Thursday against Quinnipiac, broke both those marks with her seven-goal, two-assist output on Friday. Pellizzi had the first hat trick of her career and Walker added a game-high four assists (tying her career-high).

Maryland scored back-to-back 20 goal games for the first time since 2001 when the Terps defeated Brown 20-4 and UMBC 23-2.

#20 OLD DOMINION 7
#7 MARYLAND 18

March 20, 2004
Ludwig Field, College Park, Md.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Kelly Coppedge scored six goals and added two assists to lead seventh-ranked Maryland to an 18-7 victory over No. 20 Old Dominion Saturday afternoon at Ludwig Field.

In addition to Coppedge's eight points, she also had a game-high six ground balls and five caused turnovers as well as four draw controls. She has scored at least eight points in her last three games, a tremendous scoring stretch that totals 25 points in that span. Delia Cox and Annie Collins tallied five points apiece as the Terrapins (5-2) won their third consecutive game. Collins' five points were a career high.

After each team scored in the game's opening three minutes, Maryland's defense shined in holding the Monarchs off the board for the last 20 minutes of the half, while the Terps ran off five straight goals and carried a 7-2 lead into halftime. The Terps allowed just seven Old Dominion shots in the first half and forced the Lady Monarchs to commit 12 turnovers.

The Terrapins then exploded early in the second half, scoring six goals in the opening eight minutes to take a 13-4 lead with 22 minutes remaining. The run was capped by senior Meg Mallon's first career goal. The Lady Monarchs fought back with unanswered goals by Suzanne Wosczyna, Caroline Jacobs and Janine Rodriguez to trim the lead to six, but the Terps regrouped after a timeout and tallied the final five scores for the 11-goal margin of victory. Three goals from Coppedge in that span helped key the game-sealing spurt.

The Maryland defense refused to allow Old Dominion to get in any offensive flow. The Lady Monarchs were 11-21 in clear attempts and had only one assisted goal on the afternoon. Wosczyna paced the ODU offense with three goals and one assist.

Mallon and Greta Sommers and Molly Lambert each recorded their first goals of the season. Laura Warren chipped in a goal and an assist and Krista Pellizzi converted a free-position shot to round out the Terp scoring.

#11 DARTMOUTH 8
#8 MARYLAND 11

March 23, 2004
Ludwig Field, College Park, Md.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- After a sluggish first half, the eighth-ranked Maryland Terrapins used an early second half surge to get past Dartmouth, 11-8, Tuesday afternoon at Ludwig Field.

"This was a big game for us," head coach Cindy Timchal said. "Dartmouth is a very good team and they were looking for a victory. I thought we lacked a little bit of energy in the first half, but we responded and were able to come away with a hard-fought win."

Maryland held a 3-1 lead with just over 12 minutes to play in the first half, but the Big Green got goals from Molly Jenkins and Lana Smith to tie the game at 3-3 heading into half time. Dartmouth had other chances, but 10 saves from goalie Kirah Miles, including six on free-position shots, helped keep the Big Green off the board.

The Terps started the second half strong, scoring three goals in the first 10 minutes. Jessica Dorney scored two of those goals and Delia Cox accounted for the other to push the Terp lead to 6-3. The Big Green were unable to mount a run at the Terps after that, as Maryland answered every score Dartmouth tallied the rest of the way. The Terp defense, who had surrendered 20 Dartmouth shots in the first half, allowed just nine Big Green shots in the second.

Kelly Coppedge, who was held scoreless in the first half, came through for the Terps in the second half with two goals and an assist. Cox led all scorers with three goals and an assist for four points and grabbed a team-best five ground balls. Dorney finished with a hat trick, while Acacia Walker registered two goals.

March 26, 2004
Henry Field, Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. – Acacia Walker scored her first hat trick of the season and Annie Collins scored two goals and had two assists - including one on the game-winner — to lead Maryland to a 12-11 victory over Penn State Friday afternoon in the first game of the ACC/ALC Challenge in Chapel Hill, N.C.

The Terps (7-2) used seven unanswered goals from the end of the first half to the beginning of the second to take the win over No. 20 Penn State (2-6).

The two teams played even through the first 15 minutes of the first period and were tied 4-4 before Penn State surged ahead with three unanswered goals. The Terps roared back, though, rattling off the game's next six goals, getting two goals from Walker and scores from Krista Pellizzi, Kelly Coppedge, Delia Cox and Annie Collins to take a 10-7 lead into the half.

Maryland controlled a well-played offensive first half committing just two turnovers and firing 26 shots compared to Penn State's 11.

Mollie Reese started the second half with another score for Maryland giving the Terps a four-goal cushion. After being held scoreless for nearly 19 minutes, the Nittany Lions scored a pair of goals within two minutes to cut the lead to two with 21 minutes left in the game. Reese scored - in what would turn out to be the game-winner with 17:52 left — cutting to the net and finishing a pass from Collins from behind the net.

The Nittany Lions countered quickly with a goal at 17:04 and another at 14:51, but could not score the game-tying goal. The game's last 10 minutes were played mostly in the midfield as the teams traded turnovers and quick offensive opportunities before the Terps were able to control possession for the last two minutes of action and run out the clock to preserve the victory.

Collins scored a team-high four points on two goals and two assists, while Walker added three points on three goals. Reese, Coppedge and Pellizzi scored a pair of goals and Cox added one goal and Jessica Dorney had an assist for the Terps.

March 28, 2004
Henry Field, Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C.. – Kelly Coppedge scored five goals and Annie Collins chipped in a goal and four assists to lead No. 8 Maryland to a 14-4 victory over No. 18 Ohio State Sunday afternoon at Chapel Hill, N.C., at the ACC/ALC Challenge.

"We were sharp today, and we improved on things from Friday," head coach Cindy Timchal said. "Ohio State has good, tough players and we needed to come out with the intensity that we did on both ends of the field."

The Terps (8-2) have now rattled off six straight victories. All three of Maryland's wins this week were over ranked opponents (Dartmouth, Penn State and Ohio State).

The Terps dictated the action throughout the first half offensively and defensively, scoring the game's first six goals and not allowing a Buckeye score until the 1:05 mark in the first half. Coppedge scored the game's first goal at 27:45 on an assist from Collins, but the Terps didn't score again until 12 minutes later - again by Coppedge. Delia Cox and Jessica Dorney added scores before Coppedge found the back of the net again. A Cox goal at 4:30 in the first half swelled Maryland's lead to 6-0 before OSU finally netted a goal.

Maryland started the second half right where it left off in the first half on unanswered goals from Dorney, Laura Warren in Coppedge within the first 10 minutes of second half action to put the game away. Jaimee Motley and Emily Jaissle tacked on late goals for the Terps in the runaway victory.

The Terps, playing without Molly Lambert, got outstanding defensive efforts from Tess McLeod (three caused turnovers and a team-high five ground balls) and Coppedge who caused four turnovers. Meg Sommar, who started in place of Lambert, Meg Mallon and Greta Sommers helped Ohio State commit more turnovers (20) than shots (17). Kirah Miles allowed just three goals before giving way to Kate Capelle in the final minute.

"This was a good win for us and a good experience this weekend. Someone's going to win an ACC championship on this field," Coppedge said, alluding to the ACC Tournament to be held in Chapel Hill.

#2 GEORGETOWN..... 8
#7 MARYLAND..... 13

April 7, 2004
Ludwig Field, College Park, Md.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – It took Maryland just :19 second to flex its muscle against No. 2 Georgetown as Delia Cox raced down the field and scored, giving the Terps a lead they would not relinquish defeating the Hoyas 13-8 Wednesday evening at Ludwig Field.

Senior Kelly Coppedge led the way for the Terps scoring six goals and adding two assists in the victory. Cox netted a hat trick and added an assist for Maryland as the Terrapins extended their winning streak to eight and moved to 10-2 on the year, while Georgetown fell to 7-2.

Goalie Kirah Miles stopped 13 shots and the Maryland defense refused to allow any Georgetown players run free in front of the net. The Hoyas' leading scorer, Sarah Oliphant, was held scoreless and limited to just four shots.

Just over a minute after scoring her first goal of the game, Cox scored again after Coppedge won the draw and put Maryland on offense.

Gloria Lozano got Georgetown on the board on a free-position shot at 23:01, but Coppedge responded with a pair of goals – the second coming on a nice feed from Annie Collins. The Hoyas rallied on goals from Catherine Elbe and Anouck Peters, but the Terps again had an answer with four straight goals in just over three minutes to push the lead to 8-2. The Hoyas would add a pair of scores and head to the locker room trailing 8-5.

Georgetown had opportunities to cut the Maryland lead in the first half, but failed to convert on three free-position shots. The Hoyas were just 4-10 on free-position shots.

Coppedge set the tone in the second half with an unassisted goal at 25:22. The Hoyas would score three of the game's next four goals to make the score 10-8 with 15:25 remaining, but Coppedge shut the door on the rally with a pair of goals — one set up by a beautiful move behind the cage in which she faked a Georgetown defender and wheeled in front of the net unmarked for the score. Acacia Walker also netted a goal to close out the scoring for Maryland.

Despite being outshot 32-27, Maryland held a 13-10 edge in the draw controls, including nine in the first half. On three of those nine, Maryland scored immediately without a change of possession.

#9 JOHNS HOPKINS 11

April 10, 2004

Homewood Field, Baltimore, Md.

BALTIMORE, Md. – Kelly Coppedge scored six goals - including the 200th of her career - to lead No. 7 Maryland to its ninth straight victory as the Terrapins defeated No. 9 Johns Hopkins, 14-11, Saturday afternoon at Homewood Field.

Just as they did against Georgetown on Wednesday, the Terps (11-2) got off to another quick start. After pressure on Hopkins keeper Lauren Riddick resulted in a turnover, Acacia Walker capitalized on it with a goal just :26 seconds into the game. Walker added another goal at 27:52 to give the Terps a 2-0 lead in just over two minutes.

After a Hopkins goal by Mary Key, Riddick again turned the ball over in her own end resulting in a Coppedge goal. The Terps would run off five more goals in a row - including three more from Coppedge and scores from Walker and Laura Warren - to give Maryland control of the game with an 8-1 lead. Coppedge's 200th score came when she knifed between two defenders 20 yards away from the net and then raced toward the cage for the goal. A JHU goal by Heidi Pierce would make the game 8-2 heading into half time.

In addition to her three first half goals and one assist, Walker was also dominant for the Terps taking draws as well, as Maryland held an 8-3 advantage in that category. The Terrapin defense held the Blue Jays to just eight shots in the first half, with goalie Kirah Miles making five saves.

Johns Hopkins scored to open the second half, but Maryland responded with a goal from Jessica Dorney that she rolled in from 10 yards out and another goal by Warren. After a Mary Key goal to make the score 10-4, the Terps again bounced back with a pair of scores. Mollie Reese took a feed from behind the cage from Coppedge for a goal and Annie Collins tallied a goal with a backhanded shot.

Hopkins started to make a run at the Terps toward the middle of the second half, with Erin Riordan notching a pair of goals to make the score 12-6 with 16:04 left in the game. The Blue Jays closed the game with a 5-2 run (with Maryland's two scores coming courtesy of Coppedge), but it was not enough to overcome the first half deficit as they fell 14-11.

#15 NORTH CAROLINA... 9
#4 MARYLAND..... 11

April 17, 2004

Ludwig Field, College Park, Md.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Maryland got off to yet another quick start scoring two goals in the game's first three minutes and eight goals in the first 20 minutes and withstood a late North Carolina rally to hold on 11-9, Saturday afternoon at Ludwig Field.

With the Tar Heels focused on shutting down Maryland's leading scorer Kelly Coppedge, Annie Collins and Jessica Dorney picked up the offensive slack for the Terps. Collins led all scorers with five points (tying her career-high) on two goals and three assists, while Dorney netted her sixth hat trick of the season. And despite UNC's efforts, Coppedge still finished with a goal and two assists.

Coppedge got things started for Maryland with her 55th goal of the season just a minute and a half into the game when she got a step in front of her defender at the top of the fan and took a pass from Collins to tally the score. Collins earned another assist just :48 later finding Delia Cox for the goal. The Terps have outscored opponents 16-4 in the first five minutes of the game this season.

After a goal by UNC's Beth Ames, Dorney scored two goals in :13 seconds to make the score 4-1, but UNC countered with scores by Jess Allen and Melissa McCarthy. With the score 4-3 with 20 minutes left in the first half, the Terps surged ahead with a 4-0 run in the next 10 minutes. Collins netted two goals and Cox and Acacia Walker each added unassisted goals for the Terps in that span to give Maryland an 8-3 lead with 10:06 remaining in the first half.

Maryland broke an almost 20 minute scoring drought when Coppedge, working behind the cage, found Laura Warren cutting through the middle of the fan for the first score of the second half at 22:03.

The Tar Heels rallied scoring the game's next four goals and cut Maryland's lead to just two goals with just under five minutes remaining in the game, but after UNC's Ilsa Leon turned the ball over at the 4:18 mark and Maryland was able to maintain possession for the final minutes of the game to preserve the victory.

ACC Semifinals

#3 MARYLAND..... 7
#2 VIRGINIA..... 9

April 23, 2004

Henry Field, Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - Kirah Miles stopped 17 shots and the Terp defense held ACC Player of the Year Amy Appelt to just two goals, but it wasn't enough as Maryland fell 9-7 to Virginia Friday afternoon in the ACC Semifinals.

With the win, Virginia (14-3) advances to face Duke in the finals. The loss snaps Maryland's 10-game winning streak and drops its record to 12-3 on the season.

The Terps fell behind early when UVa's Caitlin Banks found the back of the net at 28:09, but Maryland rattled off the next five goals to take a 5-1 lead with 7:33 left in the first half. In that surge, Kelly Coppedge netted a free-position goal, Delia Cox tallied a pair of scores, and Greta Sommers and Annie Collins found the back of the net for the Terps.

Virginia countered with a score by Kim Conners just :15 later at 7:08, but Maryland pushed its lead to four again on an unassisted goal by Krista Pellizzi at the 5:51 mark. The Cavs' Courtney Young added her 17th goal of the season on an unassisted goal at 3:07 to cut the deficit to three heading into half time.

Appelt was held scoreless in the first half trying to fight through Greta Sommers and double teams. She managed seven total shots, but Miles was able to stop all three of Appelt's shots on goal — including one free-position.

Appelt wasn't held down for long, though, helping to ignite Virginia in the second half. She scored just two minutes into the second half and added another goal just :46 later to make the score 6-5. Tyler Leachman tied the score at 6-6, then Morgan Thalenberg gave Virginia the lead at 19:26. The Cavs capped their 7-0 run over 22:41 minutes with goals by Banks and Ashleigh Haas to take a 9-6 lead.

After a Terp timeout, Laura Warren stopped the Maryland scoring drought with a shot from five yards out in front of the cage to cut the deficit to two goals with 10:26 remaining in the game. Maryland appeared to make it a one-goal game, but an offsides call disallowed a Maryland score and gave Virginia the ball. The Terps also had another good opportunity on a free-position shot but could not convert.

#1 PRINCETON ..... 8 (OT)

April 28, 2004
Class of 1952 Stadium, Princeton, N.J.

PRINCETON, N.J. - Delia Cox scored six goals as No. 4 Maryland pushed No. 1 to the limit, but the Terps fell 8-7 in overtime Wednesday night at The Class of 1952 Stadium. The Tigers got the game-winning goal with just :17 left in the second overtime session to propel them to the victory.

Cox was the primary source of offense for Maryland, with her six goals matching a career high that she set earlier this season against Syracuse.

The Terps got on the board first when Cox beat the double team to get to the cage for the score in the game's fourth minute. From there, the Tigers dominated possession for the rest of the first half. Princeton benefited from a yellow card on Greta Sommers as Princeton scored three goals while one of Maryland's top defenders was on the sideline. In that run from 16:22-13:07, the Tigers won all three draw controls.

Cox got the Terps within one to make the score 3-2 with 5:32 left in the half, but Sherry countered just :30 later as the Tigers took a 4-2 lead into the locker room.

Princeton took its biggest lead at 7-4 with 10 minutes remaining, but Cox had the answer for the Terps scoring twice to trim the Tiger lead to one. Brooke Richards got the equalizer at 7-7 after a nice one-on-one move just to the right of the cage freed her up for the goal with 6:12 remaining in the game.

Freshman Meghan Higgins also helped the Terps maintain the momentum in their 3-0 run by helping Maryland control two of three draw controls down the stretch in regulation. In overtime, Higgins helped Maryland win two of the three draws.

After a scoreless first overtime period, the Terps took the draw to begin the second session, but the Tigers were able to force a turnover to start their offensive possession. After a thorough possession, Princeton was finally able to get the game-winner on a goal from Hardiman on a pass from Sherry. On the play, Sherry, behind the cage, found Hardiman cutting open through the fan for the score. The Terps won the draw, but were unable to get a good look at the goal as time expired.

#3 LOYOLA 7

May 1, 2004
Diane Geppi-Aikens Field, Baltimore, Md.

BALTIMORE, Md. - The No. 4 Maryland Terrapins used stifling defense and 7-2 second half run to notch a huge road victory over No. 3 Loyola, 12-7, Saturday afternoon at Diane Geppi-Aikens Field.

The Terps got back to their offensive style of play using precision passing and getting numerous people involved. Brooke Richards, making her first career start, and Kelly Coppedge each had a game-high four points on three goals and one assist.

Six players scored at least one goal and eight of Maryland's 12 goals were assisted. Acacia Walker had two assists to go with one goal for the Terps.

The Maryland defense was equally as impressive, holding Loyola scoreless for over 29 minutes spanning the last three minutes in the first half until 4:09 in the seccond half. Kirah Miles made the difference in goal for the Terps, notching 14 saves and the defensive unit held Loyola's top scorer, Sydney Greene, two just two goals on the afternoon.

The Terps again set the tempo early with a goal from Jessica Dorney just 35 seconds into the game. Laura Warren added another score for the Terps, but Loyola countered with a pair of scores to tie the score at 2-2. Maryland's Delia Cox and Loyola's Greene traded goals, before Coppedge and Richards put the Terps up 5-3 with 10:37 remaining in the half. The Greyhounds again fought back, though, with goals from Katie Guarino and Greene to tie the game at 5-5 going into the half.

After nine scoreless minutes in the second half, the Terps broke the game open scoring five unanswered goals. In that run, Coppedge, Cox, Richards and Laura Warren netted goals for the Terps to take a commanding 10-5 lead with just 4:21 remaining in the game. Loyola finally got on the board just 12 seconds later, but Coppedge and Richards added scores in the last minute of play to secure the victory.

The Terps benefitted from pressure all over the field, forcing eight of Loyola's 16 turnovers. Coppedge and Meg Mallon each caused two Greyhound turnovers. Conversely, Maryland committed just nine turnovers in the game.

#20 GEORGE MASON 9
#3 MARYLAND 13

May 9, 2004
Ludwig Field, College Park, Md.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Maryland got five goals from senior Kelly Coppedge on Senior Day as the No. 3 Maryland Terrapins defeated No. 20 George Mason 13-9 Sunday afternoon at Ludwig Field. In a close game for most of the afternoon, the Terps rattled off five unanswered goals in the middle of the second half to secure the victory.

Junior Acacia Walker scored four points on one goal and three assists, and senior Annie Collins tallied two goals and one assist for three points to help pace the Maryland offense.

As has been their trademark in the latter part of the season, the Terps took the early lead on goals from Jessica Dorney and Walker. The Patriots countered, though, scoring the game's next three goals to take the lead.

Trailing 4-3 with 8:02 left in the game, Coppedge connected on three straight goals for the Terps, all on assists from Walker to give Maryland a 6-4 lead. The Patriots cut the deficit to one with 15 seconds remaining in the half on a goal by Lisa Hagan.

The Patriots came out of the locker room and added another score to tie the game before Maryland put on a 6-0 run over the next 14 minutes to take a commanding 12-6 lead. Collins and Coppedge, two of Maryland's seven seniors, helped key the run with a pair of goals each. Senior Laura Warren and sophomore Delia Cox also found the back of the net to help key the Terrapin run.

During that run, the Terps dominated possession, thanks in part to Meghan Higgins taking a portion of the draw controls. On several draws, Higgins was able to pop the ball directly to Coppedge, who was credited with a game-high six draws on the day. For the game, the Terps won 17 of 24 draw controls.

Defensively for the Maryland, Greta Sommers was able to cause two turnovers and scoop a game-high five ground balls. Tess McLeod also forced two Patriot turnovers in her final regular season game for the Terps.

NCAA First Round

TEMPLE 4
#3 MARYLAND 22

19

May 13, 2004
Ludwig Field, College Park, Md.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Twelve different Maryland Terrapins scored a goal as the Terps defeated Temple, 22-4, in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. Maryland advances to the quarterfinals where they will face Georgetown, who defeated Duke 13-12 in overtime in the first round. The site and time of that game will be announced Friday morning.

Kelly Coppedge led all scorers with seven points on five goals and two assists. Acacia Walker had six points on four assists (tying her career-high) and two goals. Brooke Richards and Delia Cox added hat tricks for the Terps. Jessica Dorney set a career-high with four assists to go with one goal.

Kelly Coppedge

After two goals within the first two minutes of action from Coppedge and Walker, Temple won the draw and promptly scored on a Tiffany Pulaski goal. From there, though, it was all Maryland as the Terrapins closed out the first half with nine straight goals. Coppedge scored three goals in the first half while Walker, Cox and Brooke Richards all tallied a pair of goals in that frame. Jessica Dorney added a score and Molly Lambert notched her second goal of the season as Maryland took an 11-1 lead into the locker room.

In the second half, the Owls put up a quick score to make it 11-2, and would counter Maryland's scoring through the first 17 minutes of the second half with the score being 14-4 with 13 minutes left. However, the Terps proved to be too much scoring the game's last eight goals. Highlighting the run was a behind-the-back goal from senior Jenny Marmion - her first goal as a Terp - with just 27 seconds remaining in the game. Also during that run freshman Jen Greenberg tallied a goal and freshman Meghan Higgins notched the first goal of her career.

A major reason the Terps were able to dominate possession was their ability to win the draws - especially Walker. Maryland won 21 of 27 draws and Walker snagged a game-high eight herself. When Maryland was not winning the draw, though, its pressure forced 18 of Temple's 25 turnovers. Coppedge caused three turnovers, while Walker, Lambert, Megan Sommar, Krista Pellizzi and Martha Raver all caused two each.

With the win, Maryland advances to the NCAA Quarterfinals for the 15th consecutive season. The Terps will face Georgetown, a team they defeated 13-8 earlier this season.

Coppedge's seven points give her 296 for her career. Should she get four more points, she would become just the 14th player in Division I history to have 300 career points.

NCAA Quarterfinals

GEORGETOWN 14
#3 MARYLAND 10

May 16, 2004
Ludwig Field, College Park, Md.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - The Georgetown Hoyas used a dynamic offense and applied plenty of defensive pressure to defeat No. 3 Maryland, 14-10, and advance to the NCAA Women's Lacrosse Final Four. The Hoyas got goals from nine different players and Coco Stanwick scored a hat trick to help lead Georgetown to its third final four in the last four seasons. The Hoyas also avenged an earlier 13-8 loss earlier this season and have won two of its last three games played at Ludwig Field.

Georgetown (13-4) will face the winner of Virginia and Northwestern in next week's national semifinal. Maryland finishes the season at 15-5.

Maryland's Kelly Coppedge capped her brilliant Terrapin career by scoring a game-high four points on three goals and an assist. With those four points, she became just the 14th player in Division I history to score 300 points in a career.

In the first half, the two teams were never separated by more than two goals. With Maryland leading 5-3 with 8:14 left in the first half, the Hoyas closed the half with three unanswered goals to take a 6-5 lead into the locker room.

That lead would not last long, though, as Brooke Richards found the back of the net just 32 seconds into the second half to tie the score at 6-6. Just over two minutes later, though, Stanwick and Anouck Peters gave Georgetown an 8-6 lead. Coppedge cut into the lead for the Terps with a score at 25:48, but the Hoyas went on a crucial 4-0 run over the next 17 minutes to get some distance from Maryland. Catherine Elbe scored two goals in that run and Allison Chambers and Lauryn Bernier also found the back of the net for Georgetown.

After Chambers' score at 8:56 gave the Hoyas a 12-7 lead, the Terps fought back on quick scores from Acacia Walker and Katie Doolittle. Walker scored just 11 seconds after Chambers at 8:45, and Doolittle got her score just 20 seconds later at 8:25 to cut the lead to 12-9.

The Hoyas would not be denied, though, as Chambers scored again at 7:19 to push the lead back to 13-9. Just over five minutes later, Sarah Oliphant put the game away on a goal on an assist from Peters.

Despite winning just seven of 26 draw controls, the Hoya defense and play in the midfield helped keep Maryland at bay. Twice after Maryland won draw controls, Oliphant caused a turnover that led directly to a breakout situation for Georgetown. The Terps committed 17 turnovers (eight of which were caused by Georgetown defenders), and the Hoyas picked up 26 ground balls. Georgetown goalie Sarah Robinson stopped 14 shots and Oliphant and Ellers led the Hoyas with two caused turnovers apiece.

Maryland was unable to find the kind of offensive balance that Georgetown had in the game. Delia Cox was held to just one score and Annie Collins and Acacia Walker were held to two points each. In addition to her four points, Coppedge finished with a game-high three caused turnovers, four ground balls and three draw controls.

MARYLAND

"STRIVE FOR CLARITY, BUT ACCEPT AND UNDERSTAND AMBIGUITY."

That phrase captures one way in which an educated person approaches the world and its challenges. Students who graduate from the University of Maryland have been exposed to the tools that allow them to put that perspective to work. Imparting such a perspective may be an ambitious project for undergraduate education, but to aim for anything less would be unworthy of a great university's goals for its students. Thirteen years ago, Promises to Keep, a plan for undergraduate education at Maryland, articulated those goals so eloquently we repeat them here.

Undergraduate education at Maryland "aims to provide students with a sense of identity and purpose, a concern for others, a sense of responsibility for the quality of life around them, a continuing eagerness for knowledge and understanding, and a foundation for a lifetime of personal enrichment."

As we learn with and from one another, we try to "develop human values," "celebrate tolerance and fairness," "contribute to the social conscience," "monitor and assess private and collective assumptions," and "recognize the glory, tragedy and humor of the human condition." Your years at the University of Maryland can provide you with all the tools you need to accomplish these goals. Students here are "educated to be able to read with perception and pleasure, write and speak with clarity and verve, handle numbers and computation proficiently, reason mathematically, generate clear questions and find probable arguments, reach substantiated conclusions and accept ambiguity."

AND WE ALSO HOPE YOU ENJOY THE JOURNEY.

2005 MARYLAND WOMEN'S LACROSSE

THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

The Campus

By virtually every measure of quality, the University of Maryland has gained national recognition as one of the fastest-rising comprehensive research institutions in the country. The momentum of recent years has poised the university to move it into the top ranks of higher education and take leadership in shaping the research university of the 21st century.

The university has enjoyed a decade of momentum in all of the areas that affect quality. The average high school GPA of entering students has zoomed from 3.01 to nearly 3.90, and the average SATs are now more than 1270. The student body is a model of diversity, with minorities making up more than 32 percent of all students, and at least one graduate and undergraduate student from every state in the nation.

The university has 67 graduate and undergraduate programs ranked in the Top 25 by U.S. News and World Report, up from just one program in 1991.

Sponsored research and outreach has nearly tripled in the same 10-year period, exceeding $350 million last year. Private giving also has increased, and the university last year concluded its first campaign by topping its $350 million goal by more than $100 million. Alumni Association membership has been growing at an average rate of 10 percent a year since 1992.

One of the largest research universities in the United States, Fall 2002 enrollment was 25,240 undergraduate and 9,561 graduate students. There are 94 undergraduate programs, 89 master's programs, 70 doctoral programs and one first professional degree program. More than 100 centers and institutes are engaged in research and outreach.

Faculty at the University of Maryland, in all fields of knowledge, are engaged at the highest levels of national and international concern. The university's location near the center of federal policy-making and international political and economic activity enables it to play an active role in research and analysis of public policy.

Maryland is one of 30 public universities in the prestigious 63-member Association of American Universities and the only public institution in the Maryland-D.C. area with membership in the nation's most distinguished honor society, Phi Beta Kappa.

DID YOU KNOW?

In 1991, Maryland had one program listed among Top 25 entrants in the U.S. News & World Report Rankings. Maryland now has 67 programs ranked among the nation's elite, and the university is ranked 18th nationally among public universities.

A report card published in Technology Review rated the top U.S. universities in their quest for intellectual property, commercial partners and profits. Johns Hopkins University and the University of Maryland (28th) were the Mid-Atlantic (Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, District of Columbia) schools to make the "campus patenting" top 50 list.

Black Issues In Higher Education ranked the university fourth nationally in bachelor's degrees earned by African-American students at traditionally white schools. Maryland ranks first in African-American undergraduate degrees in social sciences and history.

The Wall Street Journal ranked the Robert H. Smith School of Business No. 16 among the world's business schools. Maryland is the top-ranked school in the Mid-Atlantic region (Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia). The Financial Times of London ranked the Robert H. Smith School of Business No. 8 in information technology, No. 6 in faculty research and No. 7 in entrepreneurship.

In the only undergraduate program rankings released by U.S. News & World Report–business and engineering–both the Robert H. Smith School of Business (No. 18) and A. James Clark School of Engineering (No. 24) were ranked among the top 25. The university also ranked in the top 25 for its learning communities (3rd), first-year experience (12th) and service learning programs (24th).

DR. C.D. MOTE

University President
California '69
Seventh Year

As the 19th president of the University of Maryland, C. D. "Dan" Mote Jr. has presided since 1998 over a university that is claiming a well-earned position in the top echelon of research universities in the nation. An internationally-respected researcher and member of the National Academy of Engineering, Dr. Mote is Glenn L. Martin Institute Professor of Engineering. He serves on the Technology Council of Maryland, is co-chair of the Potomac Conference of the Greater Washington Board of Trade and heads its Technology Transfer Committee.

Under President Mote's leadership, Maryland has received national and international notice for innovative undergraduate education opportunities, high-impact research and academic programs, outstanding performing arts, and athletes and athletic teams competitive with the best in the nation.

"The future of the state depends on this university," says Mote. "It is the State of Maryland's most important asset." As president, Dan Mote has been determined to make that asset even greater by nourishing a culture of excellence and civility across the campus, strengthening the university's connections with its various stakeholders, building partnerships with State and national corporations and federal agencies and achieving distinction as an institution where discovery takes place every day and everywhere. The university's progress can be seen in all areas, from its nationally-ranked programs to its success in building external partnerships to its state-of-the-art facilities.

Quality Programs

Over the past decade, the quality of Maryland's programs and reputation has climbed steadily. In 2003, the University of Maryland moved up to 17th place among public universities in U.S. News & World Report rankings, up from 30th in 1998. We currently have 44 graduate and undergraduate programs and units ranked in the top 15 by U.S. News & World Report, up from 5 in 1995.

While our academic successes have spread across the board, the university has emerged as a true powerhouse in business, computer science, earth sciences, engineering, environmental policy, education and journalism. Maryland is one of only 10 public and private universities that have their programs in computer science, mathematics, physics, and engineering each ranked in the top 20. Our College of Education is ranked in the top 20 nationally and 5 of its programs are in the top 10.

Athletic Excellence

Mote sees athletics as an integral part of the university experience. Indeed athletic success more often than not reflects academic success, he notes. For example, all four of the teams that played in the 2002 NCAA basketball Final Four, including Maryland, are members of the prestigious Association of American Universities, the organization that comprises the leading research and academic universities in North America. "That's no accident," Mote says. "Institutions that are committed to excellence tend to be excellent in every endeavor. Our successes in football, basketball, lacrosse and other sports reflects our culture of quality as much as our successes in engineering, business, education and journalism."

Faculty Stature

Dr. Mote believes a university's quality is built by its faculty, and under his leadership, Maryland continues to attract the best faculty available. The university recruited a Nobel Laureate in Physics in 2001 and three more Pulitzer Prize winners (to join three already on the faculty). More than 30 of our faculty are members of the national academies, the highest professional recognition attainable.

DEBORAH A. YOW

Athletics Director • 11th Year at Maryland

Deborah A. Yow is in the 11th year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland, a tenure that has seen unprecedented success and achievement in Maryland athletics. Each year has brought about continued improvement and accomplishment in Terrapin athletics. In Yow's 10 years at Maryland, the Terrapins have won a remarkable nine NCAA national championships and graduated its student athletes at an enviable rate as Maryland athletics has soared to sustained new heights.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony of her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability.

Likewise, her election to the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics four years ago is an indication of the wide respect with which she is regarded among its 6,100 members representing 1,600 colleges and universities in the U.S. and Canada. She was singled out by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal as one of the leading administrators in the U.S. and she received the Carl Maddox Sport Management Award presented by the United States Sports Academy for excellence in athletics administration. Yow was selected to serve on the U.S. Department of Education's Commission on Opportunities in Athletics to review the status of Federal Title IX regulations. She has served as the chair of the Atlantic Coast Conference Committee on Television for 2003 through 2004. The committee, comprised of the ACC's athletics directors, is charged with overseeing the league's TV contracts and dealing with issues related to television. Yow led the committee during the recent, very successful renegotiation of comprehensive, multiyear ACC football and basketball contracts with ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and syndication entities. Additionally, she has represented intercollegiate athletics with presentations in a number of prominent settings such as the Harvard University School of Law conference on "Shaping the Future of Collegiate Athletics" and the Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal "National Forum on the Direction of Intercollegiate Athletics." She was also recently inducted into the State of Maryland Women's Hall of Fame.

Yow, who has served on the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Division I Budget Committee, is a strong and steady voice on behalf of intercollegiate athletics in America.

Since taking over as AD at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goal-oriented organization.
- Balanced all 10 of the department's annual budgets (the first balanced budgets in the 10 years prior to her arrival). The budget has now reached $43 million annually and the multi-million dollar accumulated operating debt which her administration inherited has been eradicated.
- Greatly enhanced the academic support services provided for student-athletes, with an enviable exhausted eligibility graduation rate of approximately 85 percent for student athletes at Maryland.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the upper 10 percent of all NCAA Division I institutions.
- Significantly expanded marketing and fund-raising efforts on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletics have increased over 350 percent and corporate sponsorship revenues have increased by over 300 percent during her tenure at Maryland.
- Continued to dramatically improve venues and facilities for the department's 27 teams. The Comcast Center for men's and women's basketball and other sports that use the facility is a prime example of the dramatic upgrade of athletic facilities.
- Implemented a strategic management model.
- Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy with management, marketing and fund-raising applications.
- Significantly improved customer care in every area of Maryland athletics.

The most recent achievements of Maryland athletics are exceptional:

- Maryland was selected by U.S. News & World Report as one of the Top 20 athletic programs in the nation (for overall quality and competitive excellence).
- In men's basketball, the Terps won the Atlantic Coast Conference title over Duke in the championship game in 2004 and won the NCAA National Championship in 2002. Under Coach Gary Williams, the men's basketball team has appeared in the last 11 consecutive NCAA Tournaments, one of only five programs to do so.
- Women's basketball also won its way to the NCAA Tournament in 2004 advancing to the Second Round.
- In football, the Terps won the 2001 Atlantic Coast Conference championship and played in the 2002 Orange Bowl, and followed with an 11-win season and a 30-3 victory over the University of Tennessee in the Peach Bowl, again followed by a 10-win season and a 41-7 win over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl on New Year's Day 2004.

Yow with Maryland athletics superstars Boomer Esiason, Bonnie Bernstein and Steve Francis.

Additionally, Maryland is one of only six universities to win a National Championship in both basketball and football (UCLA, Michigan, Michigan State, Syracuse, Ohio State and Maryland).

- Maryland was selected as the sixth-finest athletic program in the nation by the Laboratory for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics, based on criteria such as graduation rates, financial efficiency, equity effectiveness and competitive excellence.
- Hired the Associated Press National Coach of the Year, Brenda Frese, as the new women's basketball coach. In her second season at the helm, her team drew 13,250 to a regular-season game and advanced to the NCAA Tournament.
- Hired Dave Cottle, the third-winningest active men's lacrosse coach in the U.S., who guided his team to the NCAA Final Four in his second year.
- Field Hockey played for the National Championship in 2001 and continues to be a Final Four team.
- Women's Lacrosse has continued its winning ways with seven national championships from 1995-2001, with additional Final Four appearances.
- Football facilities have been significantly enhanced with team house, stadium and practice field upgrades.
- The Terrapins moved into the new $125 million Comcast Center, housing athletic department offices and seating for 18,000 fans for basketball and other events.
- In 2003-04, 12 Maryland teams competed in NCAA postseason play, which earned Maryland a place in the Top 25 national rankings in the USSA Directors' Cup for competitive excellence.
- The productivity, morale, and the competitive and academic achievement of Terrapin athletics are exceptional and continue to gain momentum.

Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past 10 years, Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied... our vision is to be one of the Top 5 programs in the nation consistently... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools... to work hard and smart... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves."

As a manager and a leader, she clearly models these principles. She is the only known current AD in NCAA Division I who has hired both the National Coach of the Year in football (while at Maryland) and the National Coach of the Year in men's basketball (while at Saint Louis University). Yow is known as "a coach's AD," while also being highly organized and a strategic and proactive leader and administrator. Quite simply, Debbie Yow personifies the relational and management dynamics that are necessary to be an excellent administrator.

A successful former coach at the University of Kentucky and University of Florida, she moved into athletics administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, followed by a successful tenure as AD at Saint Louis University.

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States.

Reflecting on the status of the Terrapin men's basketball program, Maryland's Director of Athletics points out, "Our men's basketball team has become one of America's premier collegiate programs under the leadership of Coach Gary Williams and his staff. We are one of only five institutions to advance to the NCAA postseason tournament in each of the last 11 years, and the only team in the ACC to do so."

Summing up the entire athletics program, our athletics director recently stated, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets, our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the M Club members who serve and give liberally. We are also blessed with a terrific President, Dr. Dan Mote, who has fostered a mindset of excellence across our institution. He is a strong and balanced advocate for what he calls"'the three A's of the University ——Academics, the Arts and Athletics'. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our success… and the basis for our bright future. It's a great time to be a Terp."

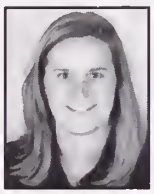
ACADEMIC SUPPORT AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT

The University of Maryland is committed to providing the highest quality education to all of its students. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to provide student-athletes excellent opportunities to participate in an intercollegiate athletics program of the highest quality, with the result that their athletics participation becomes an integral and valued component of their total educational experience at the university.

Terrapin student-athletes will find that the same hard work and discipline that has earned them success in athletics competition is also required in the classroom. Balancing the significant time demands and responsibilities required to be a successful student-athlete at the highest collegiate level is no small task. Therefore, as a result of their commitment to representing the university through athletics, Terrapin student-athletes are able to utilize support programs designed to meet their specific needs.



Led by assistant athletics director Anton Goff, the mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance academic progress, facilitate career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of all UM student-athletes. Kim Walz (right) works with the women's lacrosse team.

The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin student-athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is located in the Comcast Center. It features a study center that includes 25 desktop computers, a tutoring center, a classroom, a CHAMPS/Life Skills resource room and individual offices for six professional academic counselors, a director of ILP programs, an assistant program coordinator and two graduate assistants. In addition, a new academic wing was added to the Gossett football team house last Fall. It features offices for two counselors, three learning specialist, and a graduate assistant; as well as a quiet study area, 29-desk computer lab, classroom, tutor rooms and classroom/lab for the individualized learning program.

Academic courses, programs and services offered by ASCDU include the following:

- Student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- NCAA academic eligibility monitoring
- Academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops
- Accredited tutorial support
- Individualized learning program
- EDCP 108-K (College learning strategies and skills)
- EDCP 108-M (Math learning strategies and skills)
- UNIV 100 (First-year transitions to the university)

Maryland Gameplan

The Maryland Gameplan is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin the job search process. It is distributed to more than 500 corporations and businesses across the country, in addition to being featured on the M Club website. Prospective employers are introduced to our graduating student-athletes with resume information relative to academic, career and personal achievements. The Maryland Gameplan directory is produced annually in collaboration with the M Club.

Career Networking Night

Because career development is an ongoing process, ASCDU provides a variety of programs for student-athletes throughout the year. Professional assistance with resume-writing, interviewing skills, graduate school search and job search is readily available to all student-athletes. During the spring semester ASCDU hosts the Career Networking Night, where student-athletes can learn about career interests and career planning. Unlike typical "job fairs," the purpose of this program is to allow student-athletes to explore multiple career opportunities by speaking directly to individuals in their chosen areas of interest. Employers at the Career Networking Night recognize the marketable qualities student-athletes have gained through athletic participation. Student-athletes learn about opportunities for internships and full-time jobs.

Student-Athlete Advisory Council

The Student-Athlete Advisory Council (S.A.A.C.) plays an important role in the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It consists of two representatives from each varsity sport and meets on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. The S.A.A.C. mission is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by developing leadership skills, promoting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image on the Maryland campus, local area and nationally.

CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs

ASCDU houses the NCAA's (National Collegiate Athletic Association) Challenging Athletes' Minds for Personal Success (C.H.A.M.P.S.) Life Skills Program. The ASCDU staff, in collaboration with various other Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' units and campus resources, strives to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual academically, athletically and emotionally, and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during college and after graduation. The menu of presentations, workshops and seminars is a comprehensive and balanced system of "life learning" programs promoted for use by each varsity sport team.

Highlights of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs:

- Support efforts of every student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation
- Use athletics as preparation for success in life
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes
- Promote respect for diversity among student-athletes
- Enhance interpersonal relationships in the lives of student-athletes
- Assist student-athletes in building positive self-esteem
- Enable student-athletes to make meaningful contributions to their communities
- Promote ownership by the student-athletes of their academic, athletic, personal and social responsibilities
- Enhance partnerships between the NCAA, member institutions and their communities for the purpose of education
- Encourage the development of leadership skills

CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs Commitment Statements

Commitment to Academic Excellence To support the academic progress of the student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation.

Commitment to Athletic Excellence To build philosophical foundations for the development of athletic programs that are broad-based, equitable and dedicated to the well-being of the student-athlete.

Commitment to Personal Development To support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle for student-athletes, encouraging emotional well-being, personal growth and decision-making skills.

Commitment to Career Development To encourage the student-athlete to develop and pursue career and life goals.

Commitment to Service To engage student-athletes in service to his/her campus and surrounding communities.

Academic Support For Returning Athletes Program

The Academic Support for Returning Athletes Program was created in 1986 to support the academic efforts of former varsity student-athletes at the University of Maryland, College Park. In 1989, ASRAP was assigned by the President's Office to the Academic Achievements Program and enrolled 40 students that year. As a member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS), the University of Maryland is committed to assisting its former athletes with degree completion. A key component of the program is community outreach. Each returning student completes a "workship" that allows the cost of tuition and fees to be exchanged for community services with youth. In 2002, ASRAP moved into the ASCDU.

TERRAPIN CLUB

Championships Begin with Scholarships

Athletic excellence is a tradition at the University of Maryland—a tradition alumni and friends alike want to see continue and flourish. That's why we are inviting you to be a member of the Maryland Athletics Family by joining the Terrapin Club. Whether you are an alumnus of the University of Maryland or a friend interesting in supporting the state's flagship campus, belonging to the Terrapin Club enables you to:

- Provide annual scholarship support for our student-athletes who will contribute to the community
- Share our vision to fully scholarship all sports to best represent the University
- Take pride in the achievement of athletic excellence
- Participate in the camaraderie and fellowship unique to Terrapin Club members
- Receive a tax deduction for your financial contribution for scholarships
- Enjoy access to great benefits including priority seating in Byrd Stadium for football and Comcast Center for basketball, priority parking and tickets to other events
- Access your own personal member page within the Terrapin Club web site, to review your account

Your donation is a vital part of our strategic plan. At Maryland, the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics operates without significant University funding and receives no state appropriations or tax dollars for operational expenses. Sanctioned by the University of Maryland College Park Foundation, 100% of the funds raised through the Terrapin Club are managed by the Foundation for the exclusive use of Maryland Athletics. Your contribution directly supports an annual student-athlete scholarship cost of over $7 million and Terrapin Club and department expenses. The Terrapin Club provides scholarship support to many of the 700 student-athletes who compete on 27 varsity team representing the University of Maryland.

Getting Involved

Direct Gifts are the most common way of contributing. They are made in the form of cash, stock, checks or credit card (Visa, MasterCard, American Express or Discover). For your convenience, a personal checking account can be debited a set amount every month.

In many cases, corporate matching gifts may be used to make your Terrapin Club contribution. Please contact your employer to see if you are eligible for a matching gift program.

ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE

The Tradition

Consistency. It's the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 52nd year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 91 national championships, including 47 in women's competition and 44 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 116 times in men's competition and 57 in women's action.

If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the ACC is unrivaled in NCAA annals. With Maryland's victory over Indiana in the 2002 NCAA title game, ACC teams have captured nine NCAA basketball championships, including five over the last 14 years.

No conference has posted a better NCAA Tournament record than the ACC since the NCAA's inaugural tournament in 1938. The 11 current conference members have posted an NCAA Tournament-best mark of 315-164 for a sterling .647 winning percentage against the nation's toughest competition.

A year ago, the ACC had two teams - Georgia Tech and Duke - in the Final Four for the second time in four years and fifth time overall. In the 20 years of the 64-team field, the ACC has produced 20 Final Four teams, an average of one per year and seven more than any other conference.

Since 1985, when the NCAA Tournament was expanded to 64 teams, ACC teams have been even more impressive compiling a 203-96 (.679) NCAA record, including 56 "Sweet 16" appearances and 20 Final Four berths. Since 1985, 56 of the 102 ACC teams receiving NCAA berths have won at least two NCAA Tournament games.

Since 1990, the ACC - with a 181-173 record - is the only conference with a winning record against ranked non-conference foes.

North Carolina and Duke lead all ACC schools with three NCAA championships each. NC State has two national titles to its credit and Maryland one. The Tar Heels captured NCAA titles in 1957, 1982 and 1993 while the Blue Devils won their third title in 2001, following back-to-back championships in 1991 and 1992. The Wolfpack walked away with the coveted crown in 1974 and 1983 while the Terps claimed the 2002 national title.

The stature of ACC basketball is no where more clearly defined than by its regional and national television exposure as an all-time high 172 televised games involving ACC teams headline the league's 2004-05 schedule, including a record-setting 261 appearances. ACC teams are slated to make 132 appearances on national television networks and 79 of the league's 88 regular season conference games, including 36 on national television networks are scheduled to be televised.

This past year the ACC posted a 14-6 mark in NCAA Tournament play with the six losses by a total of 21 points. For the second time in league history, eight ACC teams took part in post-season play and six of the nine league teams were ranked in the final AP and coaches' polls. League teams were 107-24 (.816) against non-conference opponents, 13-12 versus ranked teams, including a 3-0 mark against No. 1 ranked teams. The ACC finished the 2003-04 season with the highest regular season RPI rating ever accorded a conference.

2003-04 in Review

The 2003-04 academic year concluded with the league pocketing three more national team titles and six individual NCAA crowns. In all, the ACC has won 48 national team titles over the last 14 years.

The ACC's 2003-04 national champions were Wake Forest in field hockey, North Carolina in women's soccer and Virginia in women's lacrosse. Overall, 66 ACC teams took part in post-season play compiling a 101-66-4 (.596) record.

A total of 169 student-athletes from the ACC earned first, second or third-team All-America honors this past year. In addition, the ACC produced nine national Players of the Year, two national Rookies of the Year and three national Coaches of the Year recipients.

The ACC placed at least one team in the top 10 nationally in 17 sports. In all, 31 ACC teams finished their season with a top 10 ranking.

The Championships

The conference will conduct championship competition in 25 sports during the 2004-05 academic year - 12 for men and 13 for women.

The first ACC championship was held in swimming on February 25, 1954. The conference did not conduct championships in cross country, wrestling or tennis during the first year.

The 12 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, wrestling, baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse. Fencing, which was started in 1971, was discontinued in 1981.

Women's sports were initiated in 1977 with the first championship meet being held in tennis at Wake Forest University.

Championships for women are currently conducted in cross country, volleyball, field hockey, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, tennis, golf, lacrosse, softball and rowing.

A History

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest - drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were: Dixie, Mid South, Mid Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline.

Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200.00 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted the University of Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first and only, withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971, when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation.

The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when the Georgia Institute of Technology was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State University.

The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004, with the addition of the University of Miami and Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. On October 17, 2003, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member starting with the 2005-06 academic year.
